 COLUMBUS DAY
BOCCE
 Tournament and Social

Dear Friends,

Make plans to join me Monday, October 8th for a relaxing day of socializing, food, refreshments, music, and, of course, bocce, at the Hershey Italian Lodge.

This is the day we officially recognize the many contributions of Christopher Columbus and some of you will be free from your regular work duties. Please mark your calendars and plan to join us that afternoon. Organize a foursome of your friends and enjoy a day-long Bocce Tournament. For those of you who work, a second flight of the tournament will commence in the early evening.

(Bocce, pronounced "ba-chee", is a simple game of Italian origin similar to bowling. Even if you or your teammates have never played before, you'll find this age-old game of tossing wooden balls thoroughly enjoyable and relaxing.)

By all means, please plan to attend even if you do not choose to enter the Bocce Tournament. There will be plenty of opportunities for socializing, and the Hershey Italian Lodge has billiards and card tables for our use. We hope you'll use the gathering as an occasion to re-acquaint yourselves with friends and fellow supporters. This will also give me a chance to thank you again for all you have done for my candidacy.

In order to organize the event, we need your RSVP by Friday, October 5th. Please take a moment right now and mail us the enclosed form. If you have any questions, you may contact me at 652-3263.

Sincerely,

 Ron Marsico
